One of the main focuses of the foundation is serving those in need, regardless of their color, creed, or religion. Driven by the Islamic principle of compassion, the foundation recognizes the importance of addressing the needs of the poor, weak, elderly, oppressed, orphans, widows, refugees, travelers, and prisoners. This humanitarian approach transcends religious boundaries, treating it as a universal issue that demands a humane response, devoid of prejudice, hatred, or discrimination.

Minhaj Interfaith & Welfare Foundation (MIWF) is dedicated to helping Muslims across the nation fulfill their Qurbani obligations while feeding those in need. These deserving people hardly get meat throughout the year except on this pious occasion.

Through our Qurbani HelpFeed initiative, we ensure cost-effective arrangements of animals so families can perform their sacred duty without worrying about heavy expenses on animals. MIWF also ensures proper hygiene and distribution ethics with proper packaging. This year, we proudly distributed Qurbani meat in Bihar, Bengal, and Kolkata.

The educational crisis among Indian Muslims has reached a critical stage, with the need for structured, quality education becoming more pressing than ever. Recognizing this urgent demand, Minhaj Interfaith & Welfare Foundation (MIWF) has undertaken the establishment of a school in Behraich, Madhya Pradesh, aimed at fulfilling the educational needs of the region.

With a vision to uplift the academic prospects of nearly 1,000 students, the school will serve as a model for holistic and effective education. By providing a strong foundation in conceptual and systematic learning from Nursery to Grade 12, the institution will make the student capable to pursue higher education and career aspirations with confidence and clarity.

CONSTRUCTION OF A SCHOOL IN MADHYA PRADESH

SKILL DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTE INITIATIVE

In today's rapidly evolving economy, where skill-based education is becoming increasingly vital, it is essential to guide underprivileged youth toward courses that equip them with practical, in-demand skills. Recognizing this need, MIWF proposes the establishment of Computer Training Institutes aimed at empowering needy youth with technical expertise.

Give underprivileged youth the power of knowledge through Computer Training Institutes. Your support can turn dreams into careers. Donate today—change a life forever.

These institutes will offer skill-based courses in computer applications, software, and other IT-related fields, enabling participants to secure employment or start their own ventures immediately after completing their training. By providing these opportunities, MIWF aims to help young individuals support their families and achieve financial independence.

Estimated Cost
₹10,00,000

FUTURE PROJECTS

VISION 2025

The people of Kashmir hold immense potential for educational excellence, motivated by their resilience and determination. Their dedication to building an educated society rooted in harmony and unity amongst everyone is unparalleled. However, regardless their educational wants, the lack of basic infrastructure has significantly hindered their progress development.

Minhaj Interfaith & Welfare Foundation (MIWF) is spearheading efforts to establish - Markazi Idara—a community center which will work as a focal point for regular educational needs, leaders meetings, and progressive conferences. This initiative also includes a hostel to support the academic ambitions of hardworking and dedicated boys who admire to become successful in every sphere of life.

While land acquisition has been successfully completed and construction was initiated, work has come to a standstill due to insufficient funds. As a result, students are but to study under the open sky, a condition made even more difficult during the harsh winters and snowfall.

To complete this significant project, ₹1 crore is urgently needed. This Markazi Idara will not only provide a space for learning but also act as a catalyst for fostering an educated and empowered community in the valley.

KASHMIR'S EDUCATIONAL INITIATIVES

Minhaj India is dedicated to providing free, high-quality education to underprivileged Muslim girls in the valley of Kashmir. Under the supervision of Minhaj India Women League (MIWL),

WE ARE COMMITTED TO SHAPING A BRIGHTER FUTURE THROUGH:

- ✔ World-Class Education – Delivered by top educators, combining modern academic learning with Islamic studies at no cost.
- ✔ Comprehensive Islamic Education – Regular classes in Hifz, Nazra, and Qirat, nurturing strong faith and connection with the Quran.
- ✔ Moral & Ethical Development – Instilling values based on the Quran and Sunnah to shape compassionate and responsible individuals.
- ✔ Understanding Human Psychology – Equipping girls with emotional intelligence and self-awareness to navigate life effectively.
- ✔ Expanding Horizons – Teaching national and international affairs to broaden perspectives and prepare them for a globalized world.

MIWL is expanding these initiatives to uplift more lives, but we need your support. Your Zakat and donations will help us build Markazi Idaras (central educational institutions) in Kashmir, ensuring long-term impact.

SPONSORSHIP OF ISLAM FOR KIDS BOOKS

for Underprivileged Children

WIDE SPECTRUM OF ESSENTIAL TOPICS

- ✓ The fundamentals of Islamic faith,
- ✓ The importance of education,
- ✓ Morality and ethics,
- ✓ Human rights and interpersonal responsibilities, And much more.

The comprehensive book set costs ₹7,750, and MIWF aspires to sponsor 100 sets for needy children, requiring a total of ₹7,75,000. This initiative is more than a sponsorship; it is an investment in shaping a generation that can balance Islamic principles with professional expertise to lead society toward a brighter future.

Cost of 100 Sets
 ₹4,49,900

The most enduring foundation of Islamic knowledge is built during childhood, a time when young minds embrace learning with joy and openness, unencumbered by the distractions of adult life. Recognizing this crucial stage, Minhaj Interfaith & Welfare Foundation (MIWF) has taken an initiative to empower the next generation with a profound understanding of Islamic teachings.

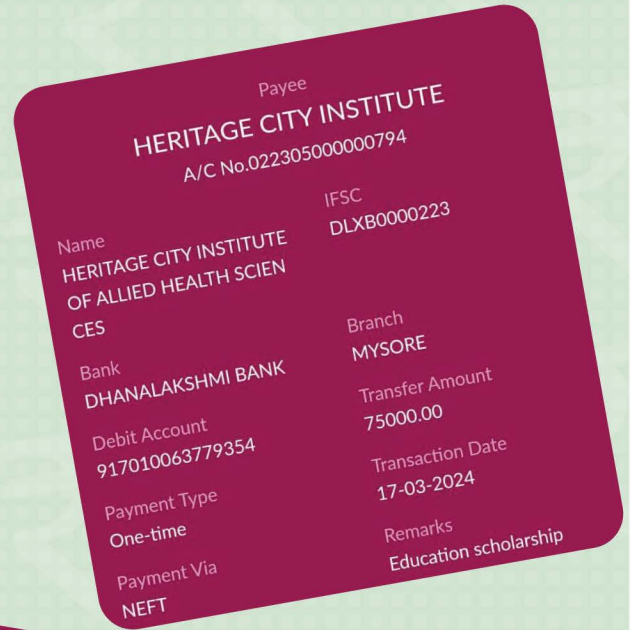

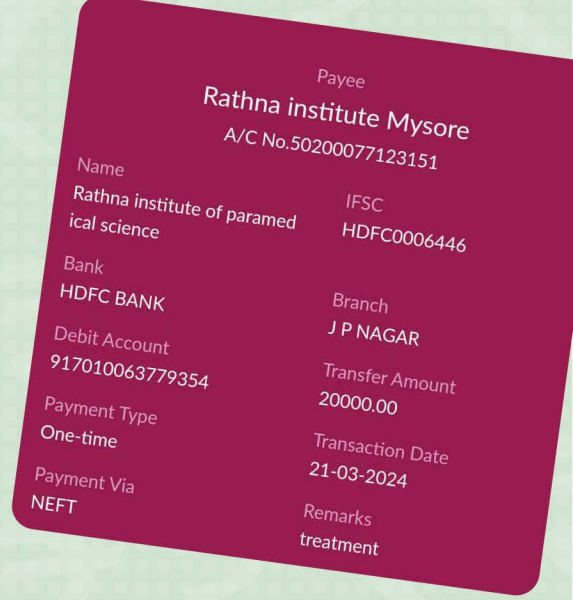

Through the Islam for Kids books series, MIWF seeks to nurture children into compassionate, morally upright, and knowledgeable individuals. This exemplary program, rooted in the Quran and Sunnah.

SPONSORSHIP FOR NEEDY STUDENTS' COLLEGE FEES

At the heart of Minhaj Interfaith & Welfare Foundation's (MIWF) mission lies the principle of beneficial education, ensuring that no dream remains unfulfilled due to financial constraints. MIWF has consistently supported students who demonstrate ambition, perseverance, and a commitment to excel, despite facing financial challenges.

This initiative not only provides financial aid but also provides a culture of accountability and mutual upliftment. Sponsored students are regularly engaged to track their academic progress and are encouraged to extend the same support to others in the future when they achieve financial independence.

DROPOUT RATES AMONG MUSLIM STUDENTS

According to the report, Assam (29.52%) and West Bengal (23.22%) recorded high dropout rates among Muslim students, while Jammu and Kashmir recorded 5.1% and Kerala 11.91%

WHAT LED TO THE DECLINE?

There are numerous debates and discussions, exploring various aspects ranging from socio-economic status to discrimination, negligence of the State or lack of community efforts to understand the backwardness of Muslims in the educational sphere.

However, the report addresses a few possible factors attributable to a combination of socio-economic factors, educational and regional disparities, and high dropout rates in early education sectors that might have led to the decline.

MUSLIM ENROLMENT IN HIGHER EDUCATION

At the upper primary level [Class 6-8], it slightly decreases to 12.62% at the secondary level [Class 9-10] and declines to 10.76% at the higher secondary level [Class 11-12],”

- The report states.

Together, we can break the cycle of hardship. Join us in uplifting a community through education and resources—because every dream deserves a chance.

Water is a fundamental necessity for human survival, yet many regions in India face severe water scarcity, disproportionately affecting marginalized communities, including Muslims. Recognizing this critical need, MIWF has initiated a project to install water borewells in areas suffering from acute water shortages.

Thousands struggle daily without clean water. Together, we can change that. Help MIWF install 5 borewells MIWF identifies high-priority regions and arranges for the immediate installation of borewells to provide communities with access to clean, sustainable water sources. In 2025, MIWF aims to establish 5 water borewells, ensuring that hundreds of families can meet their daily water needs without hardship.
